++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry with sunny spells. Cold and frosty overnight.

Today:
After a cold and frosty start, it will be a largely dry day with sunny spells and just the odd light shower. Feeling chilly, but this will be offset somewhat by the sunshine and light winds. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers soon dying out this evening to leave a dry night with prolonged clear spells and light winds. This will make for a cold night with a widespread frost. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Saturday:
A cold but largely sunny morning. Patchy cloud increasing in the afternoon, but remaining dry. Light winds. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Chilly Sunday and becoming rather cloudy. Milder Monday but cloudy, with some light rain and drizzle, mainly across western hills. Cloudy with patchy rain Tuesday and becoming windy.
